Lyman Real Estate Finds MedOptions New Larger Facilities in Old Lyme

WESTBROOK, CT—Lyman Real Estate CEO Ron Lyman, CCIM, announced that 55-57 Hatchetts Hill Road, Old Lyme, has been leased to MedOptions, a growing provider of behavioral health services to residents of nursing homes and assisted living facilities. Lyman's Peter Walsh acted as broker for the tenant who signed the agreement with landlord READCO.

MedOptions had outgrown its space in Old Saybrook, but wanted to stay in the area to accommodate its employees. The new facility is conveniently located overlooking Exit 71 on I-95 and has excellent curb appeal with ample visitor parking. MedOptions is occupying more than 16,000 square feet of the building, and has another 8,000 square feet available to accommodate further growth. Peter added, "And, of course, the Hatchetts Hill address is memorable!"
