FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Prospect Transportation Comes To Old Lyme

WESTBROOK, CT— Ron Lyman, CCIM, CEO of Lyman Real Estate, announced that Prospect Transportation has signed a short term lease for office space, a truck bay and parking and storage facilities at 36 Hatchetts Hill Road in Old Lyme, CT, as well as an option to buy the adjoining 6.23 acre lot at 38 Hatchetts Hill Road. Both properties are owned by Hatchetts Hill LLC, represented by Norm Peck of Pequot Commercial. Lyman was agent for Prospect Transportation who plan to build their Connecticut headquarters on the land they will purchase.

Based in Carlstadt, NJ, Prospect Transportation provides fuel delivery and related services to large fuel suppliers, such as airports, gas stations, bus terminals, ferry docks, fleets and other refueling stations. They serve clients in Connecticut, New York, Long Island, New Jersey and eastern Pennsylvania, and can deliver outside these areas as needed. A fourth-generation family business, Prospect Transportation also operates emergency fuel delivery networks during disasters and supply interruptions.

Lyman Real Estate Brokerage & Development, headquartered in Westbrook, Connecticut, represents commercial and residential buyers, sellers, landlords and tenants. For more than 30 years, the firm has been providing a full range of commercial brokerage and development services, and has helped bring prominent national and regional companies into the area.
